Overview

Can Yondal is a stylish five bedroom villa with stunning southerly views to the island of Formentera. The villa is wonderfully located being only five minutes from the south coast beaches of Cala Jondal and Es Torrent and five minutes to the charming village of San Jose. The house has been furnished and decorated in a cool and relaxed style that guests love and which gives the house a great spirit. The location means you can simply slide along the coast to many of Ibiza's best beach restaurants in the hidden 'calas' below.

Accommodation

Can Yondal has five bedrooms, all with their own bathroom. The upper floor has three bedrooms and the lower floor two. So, the house works very well for a group of two families taking a floor each, or of course a party of couples. The pool terrace, outside dining terrace and chill out areas link seamlessly with the kitchen and internal living area creating a wonderful space for summer living.
