Overview

The beautiful Cima Blanca, literally translating as 'the white top', is a stunning addition to our villa portfolio. The recently renovated property sits in rustic privacy at the top of a pine covered ridge in between the pretty village of San Jose and Ibiza's south coast, and the views are quite simply breathtaking. From nearly all areas of the property you can enjoy a 180 degree vista of the striking coastline below. But Cima Blanca is not only about the view. It has been stylishly renovated and decorated to create a wonderful villa for friends or family to enjoy a very special holiday.

Accommodation

The accommodation is spread out over two floors and an annex. The open plan entrance, living , kitchen and dining area is on the main upper floor. The villa has four well sized bedrooms all with en-suite bathroom and sea view, so there should be no fighting over room selection. The master bedroom is on the main upper floor. You go down a comfortable spiral stone staircase to the two lower floor bedrooms which have a large connecting living area. The lower floor bedrooms open out to a grass lawn. There is another living room , guest WC and en-suite bedroom (not internally connected) in the poolside annex which is only 10m from the main house.
